

God saw you getting tired
when a cure was not to be,
So He closed His arms around you
And whispered
"Come to Me".
You did not deserve
What you went through
And so He had you rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He only takes the best

Dick was born on March 9, 1932, to Richard and Anne Lemmerick in Humboldt, SK, and grew up on the family farm in the Muenster district. Following his education, Dick briefly joined the Army Reserve and was stationed in Dundurn, SK. In his youth, he pursued an interest in boxing, and his talent led him to become a welterweight champion in Saskatchewan. On May 9, 1959, Dick married Dolores Rath in St. Gertrude R.C. Church. They began their life together in Humboldt, then moved to Regina in August, 1963. Three children were born to them. While living in Regina, Dick was employed at the IPSCO steel plant for over 28 years. During that time, he was a loyal blood donor, with numerous donations to the Red Cross. In their leisure time, Dick and Dolores enjoyed driving around the countryside taking pictures of old homesteads and grain elevators. They were long-time members of St. Peter's R.C. Church, and more recently of Holy Trinity R.C. Church, both in Regina. Dick leaves to mourn his devoted wife of almost 60 years, Dolores (nee Rath) Lemmerick; their three children: Donalu, Dale (David), and Danette; four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren: Davin (Scott) and children Ulrik and Eisa, Richard (Megan), Lee-Ann (Jackson), and Steven (Kylie); one brother, Clifford; two sisters: Shirley and Fay (Adrian); in-laws of the Rath family: Gert Schmitz, Vivian (Hugo) Korte, Greg (Sandi) Rath, Jerome Rath, and Larry (Evelyn) Rath, Cathy Rath, Rosella Rath, and Don Korte; and by numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins. He was predeceased by his parents, Richard and Anne (nee Mainzer) Lemmerick; one brother, Roger; one sister, Blanche; in-laws of the Rath family, August and Paula Rath, Mathias Rath, Marilyn Korte, Robert Rath, Eileen Rath, and Lorne Schmitz; and by great-niece, Rayna Korte.
