

Memories of Dad.....

We do not need a special day to bring you to our minds.

The days we do not think of you are very hard to find.

Each morning when we awake we know that you are gone.

And no one knows the heartache as we try to carry on.

Our hearts still ache with sadness and secret tears still flow.

What it meant to lose you no one will ever know.

Our thoughts are always with you, your place no one can fill.

In life we loved you dearly; in death we love you still.

There will always be a heartache, and often a silent tear.

But always a precious memory of the days when you were here.

If tears could make a staircase, and heartaches make a lane,

We'd walk the path to heaven and bring you home again.

We hold you close within our hearts; and there you will remain,

To walk with us throughout our lives until we meet again.

Our family chain is broken now, and nothing seems the same,

But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

APPRECIATION

The family wishes to express their gratitude for your kindness evidenced in thought and deed, and for your attendance at the funeral service.

Brian was born on August 8, 1951, to Rodney and Lorraine (nee Therres) McMillan, in Humboldt, SK. He grew up on their farm east of Pilger and attended Colorado/Pilger School. Brian worked at various occupations throughout his life, with the most recent at CNH New Holland in Saskatoon, until his retirement. Brian will be best remembered for his love of animals and the outdoors. Growing up on the farm, Brian spent much of his time outside. He was well-known to return home after a long day of exploring, with his dogs in tow and usually some sort of stray animal, from foxes, birds, and mice to even skunks. Brian will also be remembered for the love of his family, inquisitive mind, and his love of sports, especially his lifelong passion of the Saskatchewan Roughriders and the Montreal Canadians. Brian was known as a trickster and loved to play practical jokes on everyone he met. He enjoyed watching old western and war movies, and listening to music, especially country, his favourites being Elvis and Johnny Cash. Brian is lovingly remembered by his 5 daughters: Lisa (Perry) Demers, Leanne (Scott) Kirsch, Sharrae, Sierra, and Chelan McMillan; his partner and best friend Vicki Meyer (Peter Nussey); mother Lorraine McMillan; brothers Neil McMillan, Glen (Colleen) McMillan, Lynn McMillan (Laura Haye), and Darren McMillan; grandchildren: Steven (Ashley) Demers, Gregory Demers (Jolene Lang), Ashley Demers, Alyssa Kirsch and Cameron Kirsch; nieces and nephews including Clinton McMillan, Evan McMillan, Stephanie Charlton, Benjamin McMillan, Richard and Melissa Winters, Alison, Jacob, and Clare Haye. Brian is pre-deceased by his father Rodney McMillan; and brother, Patrick McMillan.
