

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures. He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me. Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou annointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Joan was born on August 3, 1934, to Clemens and Elizabeth (nee Wickenhauser) Koenig at Watson. She grew up on the family farm south of Englefeld, SK, and attended Korbel School, just north of the Koenig homestead. Following her education, Joan worked for local families helping with a variety of jobs. On September 7, 1954, she married Lorne Molle in St. Oswald R.C. Church at Romance, SK. They began their life together on the Molle farm near Watson, where they raised their family of four, three daughters and one son. In 1986, Joan and Lorne moved into Watson and continued to farm from town until retiring in 1998. Together, they built a new home on an acreage just south of Watson. A final move was made into Watson in 2005 where they continued to reside. As well as being a dedicated homemaker, for 15 years Joan was involved with pastoral care at Quill Plains Centennial Lodge in Watson. As well, she was a member of the Watson New Horizons Seniors Centre, and a lifetime member of the Watson C.W.L. Her favorite leisure activity was curling. An extremely gentle, kind, caring and thoughtful lady, she will be greatly missed by all those whose lives she touched.

Joan will be lovingly remembered by her husband of 64 years, Lorne Molle; their family: daughter, Debra Molle-Goode (George); daughter-in-law, Wendy McGonigal; daughter, Wanda (Terry) Kozar; nine grandchildren; 12 - and soon to be 14 - great-grandchildren; two sisters: Alice (Joe), and MaryAnn (John); and by her nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her son, Clinton Molle; daughter, Marilyn Molle; parents, Clemens and Elizabeth (nee Wickenhauser) Koenig; and by her brother, Larry Koenig.
