

Letting Go

The angels gathered near your side, so very close to you, for they knew the pain and suffering that you were going through.

I thought about so many things as I held tightly to your hand. Oh, how I wished that you were strong and happy once again.

But your eyes were looking homeward to that place beyond the sky, where Jesus held His outstretched arms; it was time to say goodbye.

I struggled with my selfish thoughts, for I wanted you to stay, so we could walk and talk again, like we did... just yesterday.

But Jesus knew the answer, and I knew you loved him so, so I gave to you life's greatest gift, the gift of letting go.

Edith Josephine Raab was born on December 12, 1942, in Humboldt, Saskatchewan. She was raised on the family farm in St. Gregor. Eventually, Edith moved to Alberta and raised her three children there, later returning to Saskatchewan where she lived for 13 years. Edith will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by her two daughters and one son: Roxanne (Gordon), Nadine, and Aaron (Mindy); her grandchildren: Chantel, Justin, Lindsay, Jayte, Krista, Kylie, Masson and Cole; her sisters: Leona, Doris, Verna, and Leila, and by numerous nieces and nephews. Edith was welcomed into heaven by her family that loved her and surely they were waiting there for her at heaven’s gates: her parents, Hilda and John Raab; her sister, Karen; two nephews, Brent and Chad; and by her great-granddaughter, Janaya. Edith, your wit, your humour, your smile and your beautiful nature will be forever remembered and sadly missed by those that loved you. May you rest in peace in the arms of the Lord.
