

A Blessing for the Brokenhearted

Let us agree for now that we will not say
the breaking makes us stronger or that it is better to have this pain
than to have done
without this love.

Let us promise
we will not tell ourselves
time will heal
the wound,
when every day
our waking
opens it anew.
Perhaps for now
it can be enough
to simply marvel
at the mystery
of how a heart so broken
can go on beating,
as if it were made
for precisely this-
as if it knows
the only cure for love is more of it, as if it sees the heart's sole remedy for breaking
is to love still,
as if it trusts
that its own
persistent pulse
is the rhythm
of a blessing
we cannot begin to fathom
but will save us
nonetheless.

Ross was born to Diane (nee Krentz) and Mathias Renneberg on April 7, 1965, in Humboldt, Sask. He grew up in Bruno, attending school there and working at Hillcrest Farms, playing broom ball and some hockey too. Ross grew up loving the outdoors and sports like camping, fishing and golfing. To begin his career in welding he completed the Kelsey Welding Course and started with Decca Industries and Prairie Machine. Ross later worked at Cogema Mclean Lake, numerous other mines and the tar sands in Fort McMurray and most recently McArthur River. After meeting Nancy while curling, the two became high school sweethearts and were married in Pilger, Sask. on August 1, 1987. Together they had four children, Rachel, Rebecca, Mathias and Catherine and by 2000, Ross and Nancy moved from Saskatoon to an acreage near Bruno where Ross started his welding business and began farming. Ross was an active Lions Club member and he made time for his family and friends. He shared his passion for the outdoors with his own family through numerous trips and fun times on the farm and enjoying fishing and camping trips together. Ross will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by his four children and one grandson: Rachel (Matt) Siltala and son Hunter, Rebecca (Simon) Byrnes, Mathias Renneberg and Catherine Renneberg; his mother and stepfather, Diane (nee Krentz) and Ken Megyesi; his mother-in-law, Marcella (Wally) Sarauer; his brothers: Randy (Susan) Renneberg and Dean (Janelle) Renneberg; stepbrothers: Scott (Kim) Megyesi, Darwin (Becky) Megyesi, and Waylon Megyesi; special friend, Janice Martin; brothers-and-sisters-in-law: Barry (Joan) Pomedli, Kathleen (Terry) Ozmun, Rita (Roland) Denis, Robert (Donna) Pomedli, Glenda (Dan) Fry, Anita (Gordie) Leuschen, Trevor (Brenda) Pomedli, Valerie (Stan) Rohel, Lenore (Barry) Wourms, and by numerous nieces and nephews and their families. Ross is predeceased by his wife of 30 years, Nancy (nee Pomedli) Renneberg (2017), his father Mathias Renneberg, (1982), his maternal grandparents, Peter and Catherine (Roth) Krentz and by his paternal grandparents, Theodore and Lucy (Lepinski) Renneberg.
