

*God looked around His garden and found an empty space.
He then looked upon the earth and saw your tired face.*

*He put His arm around you, He lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful, He only takes the best.*

*You never really left us, nor have you travelled far,
Merely entered in God's garden, and left the gate ajar.*

*If tears could build a stairway, and heartaches make a lane,
I'd walk the path to Heaven, and bring you home again.*

*Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.*

Gladys was born on September 25, 1930. She was the second oldest daughter of Albert and Helene (nee Schindel) Harmel. She was born and raised on the family farm north of Jansen. She confirmed her faith on April 14, 1946, at Zion Lutheran Church in Jansen. She attended Auderville School. She and her three sisters helped with chores on the farm. She crocheted many doilies by coal oil lamp late into the night. On December 6, 1950, she married John Henry Schroeder. Their marriage was blessed with five children: Donna, twins: Dean and Dale, Edith, and Angela. They farmed north of Jansen and in 1971, they purchased the Family Food Store in Jansen. The family continued farming until the sudden passing of John in 1974. In 1975, Gladys sold the store, continuing to work there part-time and bought a house in Jansen. She then worked part-time at Yellowhead Esso at Dafoe from 1979-1987. She was involved in the church and local community club throughout the years. She enjoyed curling and attended many bonspiels in and around the Jansen area. She also had a talent for bowling and has a collection of medals from her accomplishments. In her retirement she enjoyed gardening, crocheting, dancing, baking, quilting, and spending precious time with her family and friends.

Gladys will be lovingly remembered by her family of five children, 11 grandchildren, and 7 great-grandchildren: Donna Gorski and children, son: Shaun McLennan and sons Marek and Trenten; daughter: Darla (Jim) Kinequon and daughter Sydney; Dean (Gail) Schroeder and daughter: Trina (Ryan) Larre and their family Cohen and Grace; Dale (Cecilia) Schroeder and his children, daughter: Kendra (John) Giuliano and their family Roman and Bianca; son: Selby Schroeder; Edith Earis (Patrick Wagner) and her sons: Evan (Ashley) Earis, Dylan Earis, and Carson Earis; Angela (Terry) Bowman and their sons: Hayden Bowman and Rylan Bowman; daughter: Maesyn Bowman; three sisters: Lydia Torwalt, Vorgeen Wacker, and Shirley (Barry) McDonald; and numerous nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her husband: John Schroeder; her parents: Albert and Helene (nee Schindel) Harmel; brothers-in-law: Gustive Torwalt and Emil Wacker; niece: Coralee (McDonald) Petracek; and son-in-law: Bill Gorski; along with numerous relatives from her husband's side of the family.
