If Tomorrow Starts Without Me...

*If tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me;*

*I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.*

*I know how much you love me, as much as I love you
And each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.
But when tomorrow starts without me please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand.*

*And said my place was ready, in heaven far above
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.*

*But as I turned to walk away a tear fell from my eye,
For all my life I'd always thought I didn't want to die.*

*I had so much to live for, so much left yet to do.
It seemed almost impossible that I was leaving you.
I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad.
Then thought of all the love we shared, of all the fun we had.*

*If I could relive yesterday, just even for a while,
I'd say goodbye and kiss you, and maybe see you smile.*

*But then I fully realized that this could never be,
For emptiness and memories would take the place of me.
And when I thought of worldly things I might miss come tomorrow,
I thought of you and when I did my heart was filled with sorrow.
But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home
When God looked down and smiled at me from His great golden throne.*

*He said, "This is eternity and all I've promised you.
Today your life on earth is passed, but here life starts anew.*

*I promise no tomorrow, but today will always last
And since each day's the same way, there's no longing for the past.*

*You have been so faithful, so trusting and so true ...
Thought there were times you did some things you knew you shouldn't do.*

*But you have been forgiven and now at last you're free.
So won't you come and take my hand and share my life with me?"*

*So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.*

Anna Claudette Lisette Quessy was born on October 21, 1940 at their home (Sec.19, Tp39 Rge.15, W.2), in the St. Front, Sask. district to Donat and Bertha (nee Kaye) Quessy. Claudette grew up and attended Grades 1-11 at St. Front School and Grade 12 at Spalding High School. She went on to take her teacher education at the Teacher's College in Saskatoon.

She married the love of her life, Donald Sunderland, on November 19, 1960. This marriage was blessed with six children, four sons and two daughters.

Claudette was a busy woman who always had time for her family, neighbours, and friends. She taught at Vawn, St. Raymond School, and St. Front School. She quit teaching when her growing family and the farming operation became her full-time job. Once things settled down a bit, she did take on the jobs of school bus driver to Quill Lake School and was St. Front news correspondent for the Wadena News, which she enjoyed very much and was very good at. She spent a good part of her Sunday evening putting her column for the week together and then mailing it Monday morning so it was there on time for the newspaper to add it in.

Claudette was dedicated to her husband and family. She was involved in many organizations, willing to help wherever she could. She was always very involved with her children and their sports, driving them and cheering them on in whatever activity they were taking part. She was always proud of her children – win or lose. She used to say, "Our family is normal – slightly flawed, but wonderful." She loved all her family very much. Family was very important and special to her and she always wanted them to do their best, work hard, help one another, and look after each other.

In her later years, she enjoyed watching her grandchildren and wouldn't miss out on anything if she could help it. They were all so special to her and she was so very proud of each and every one of them. She always enjoyed having her grandchildren over to their house as well, filling them up with freshly baked cookies, buns, cakes, etc. She even had a "Snoopy drawer" that the children could pick a treat from and all the grandchildren knew about it.

Claudette loved to socialize and always had time to stop in to visit friends, or host neighbours who popped over for a visit. She always had coffee or tea and fresh baking, and if you stopped during mealtime, she would invite you to stay as there was always more than enough food for everyone to eat.

She stayed on the farm with Donald until her health began to fail more in the fall of 2016. She was in Watson Lodge for a couple of months where she was cared for very well, then moved to Newmarket Manor in Tisdale. Here she was also cared for very deeply and became known as "Giggles" for her smiles and great attitude by all the workers who got to spend time with her and care for her.

Claudette was predeceased by her son Garry; parents, Donat and Bertha (nee Kaye) Quessy; brothers, Fernand, Normand and Roger; parents-in-law, John and Alma (nee Wolff) Sunderland; sisters- and brothers-in-law, Johnny and Jenny, Dorothy, Kenneth, Clotilde and LaVonne; nephews, Rodney Nelson, Ron Quessy, and great-nephew Daniel Sunderland; nieces, Marion Quessy and Wilhelmina Sunderland; and aunts and uncles, Victorine and Henry Quessy, Yvonne and Laurent Plamondon.

Claudette is survived by her loving husband of 58 years, Donald Sunderland; sons, Brian (Cindy), and children, Derek (Crystal), Sadie, Gavin; Ryan (Amber) Zoe, Emelia; Nathan (Jenna) Alexis, Aubrey, Barrett, Murray (Amanda) and children, Lindsey (Zac); Ashley (Chris Thompson), Tessa, Stetsyn, Wyatt,
