

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures. He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me. Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Albert was born on December 28, 1940, to Walter and Emily (nee Starkell) Siegel in St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Humboldt, and was raised on the family farm south of Muenster. He attended St. James Country School for grades one to eight, and then Humboldt Collegiate Institute for grades nine and ten. At a young age, he suffered from a medical condition which left him physically disabled; however, Albert persevered and helped his family on the farm as much as he was able. He especially loved gardening and doing yard work. In 1966, Albert moved into Humboldt with his parents. Many will recall seeing him enjoying his sightseeing excursions around town on his three-wheel bike or his electric scooter. In June 2009, due to failing health, he became a resident of Bethany Pioneer Village, his home until the present. Throughout his life, his faith was very important to him. Albert will be lovingly remembered by two brothers and their families: Robert (Barb) Siegel and family, Cheryl (Stacey) Logan, and Shane Siegel, and James (Elaine) Siegel and family, Trent (Alyssa) Siegel, Brian (Janelle) Siegel, and Terry Siegel; sister-in-law, Ruth Siegel and family: David (Margaret) Siegel, Larry (Jeanette) Siegel, Donna (Glen) Ferguson, Susan Siegel (Terry Thompson), Shirley (Fred) Gerstenhofer, Patricia (Larry) Suteau, and Gary Siegel; and by numerous cousins. He was predeceased by his father, Walter Siegel (1984); mother, Emily (nee Starkell) Siegel (1998); and brother, Donald Siegel (2005).
