

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room;
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little – but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared;
Miss me – but let me go.*

*For this is a journey we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan;
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me – but let me go.*

Jeannine was born in St. Front, SK, to Gustave and Marie Lefebvre (née Moisan) October 29, 1933. She took all her schooling in Englefeld, except for Grades 7 and 8 in Prud'homme, SK, and she graduated in 1952. Jeannine worked for SaskTel as a telephone operator in Humboldt for five years. On July 9, 1957, she married Anthony Koenig and they lived and raised their family that grew to include three children, on the Koenig farm near Englefeld. Always full of joy, Jeannine loved to sing and dance, and take time to visit with family, friends, and neighbours. Gardening was a passion, and she enjoyed crocheting and collecting antique dishes. In 1993 the homestead passed to their son Murray, and Jeannine moved with Anthony to Humboldt. They joined St. Augustine's Parish, and Jeannine was active in the CWL (60 years). When Anthony passed away (May 2, 2000), she continued to live in her own home until the present. Jeannine will be fondly and deeply missed by her three children, her grandchildren and her great-grandchildren: Laurie (Danny) Breker, and Amy (Brent) Friesen, Drew and Cole, Erin (Louis) Wolff, Sawyer and Rachel, Ian (Steph) Breker, and Shawna (Braeden) Meyers, Blake and Rylan; Murray (Carrie) Koenig, and Christie and Shelby; and Chris Koenig, and Raven and Elizabeth; sister Pauline Reinelt of Saskatoon, SK; brothers: Lee Lefebvre of Humboldt, and Gabe (Les) Lefebvre, Dan Lefebvre, and Manny (Cindy) Lefebvre all of Englefeld; and sister-in-law Mary Schmitz-Lefebvre of Humboldt. She was predeceased by her beloved husband, of 42 years, Anthony; parents Gustave and Marie Lefebvre (née Moisan); siblings Aline Lefebvre and Marcel Lefebvre; in-laws: Violet Lefebvre, Shirley Lefebvre, Carl Reinelt, and Marlene Lefebvre; and nephews Barry Lefebvre, and Stuart Lefebvre.
