THE LIFE OF

Weep Not For Me

Weep not for me though I have gone
Into that gentle night
Grieve if you will, but not for long
Upon my soul's sweet flight
I am at peace, my soul's at rest
There is no need for tears
For with your love I was so blessed
For all those many years
There is no pain, I suffer not
The fear is now all gone
Put now these things out of your thoughts
In your memory I live on
Remember not my fight for breath
Remember not the strife
Please do not dwell upon my death
But celebrate my life

Marie Cécile Aubin was born on a cold Palm Sunday, March 25, 1928, to Jérémie and Marie (née Carfantan) Aubin, at their home in St. Brieux, Saskatchewan. She was the fifth of six children and attended school in St. Brieux. Coming from a highly musical family, Marie learned to play the piano and was playing the pump organ in church by the age of 13. Many Sunday nights saw most young people in the Aubin home for music and fun. By 1940, all these good friends had enlisted to serve in the war, including Marie's brothers, Albert and Thomas and her sister, Rose. Marie boarded at the convent in Duck Lake, SK to attend high school and to further her music education. She completed Grade 10 with the Royal Conservatory of Music. In 1947, she joined the Sisters of the Presentation of Mary in Quebec. She was a music and theory teacher for 21 years. In 1971, she left the Sisters and entered the public work force where she held various jobs. The first ten years in Prince Albert, SK; then Indian Head, SK as a housekeeper in the Orange Home for Children, followed by the Rehab Centre for Alcohol and Drug Abuse; and finally in Fort Qu'Appelle, SK as a housekeeper and babysitter. She retired at age 65. In her retirement, she volunteered as a teacher of English as a second language. Marie also travelled -- to France three times, Washington, DC, Quebec, Alberta and British Columbia and a three month visit in Brazil. In her spare time, she knitted, crocheted for Humboldt and Area Guardian Angels Charity, sewed, and volunteered her time as a church organist. She moved to Wolverine Heights in Muenster, SK in 1999 to be closer to her hometown, then moved one last time to Chapman Place in Humboldt, SK where she passed away at age 96. She was predeceased by her parents, Jérémie and Marie Aubin; siblings, Albert (Carmella Martin), Olive (Aloysius Gruending), Rose (Hervé Loiselle), Thomas (Kathleen Astalos) and Sr. Angèle.
